

Kahala Experience

Experience Unique Calligraphy Art, Where Each Character Dances Elegantly

Calligraphy: Experience the Deep Beauty of Traditional Japanese Culture

Calligraphy is an honored tradition in Japan that has soothed the soul for decades. The scent of ink, the subtle texture of washi paper, and the fluid motion of the brush all contribute to a sense of tranquility. The simple yet elegant brush strokes on pristine white paper evoke a sense of infinite richness.

At The Kahala Hotel & Resort Yokohama, we have specially prepared an opportunity for our guests to enjoy the profound beauty of calligraphy. Born and raised in Yokohama, SHO (calligraphy) artist Hiroko Suehiro, renowned worldwide, will perform a mesmerizing display of dynamic characters and provide personalized instruction in the art of calligraphy. This exclusive experience is available only to guests staying at The Kahala Yokohama.

Witness the subtlety, elegance, beauty, and strength of characters brought to life by the hands of a master artist acclaimed for "breathing life into words." Experience the joy of creating calligraphy and the sublime feeling when the written characters seem to dance off the page, imbued with the unique expression of ink. Join us and savor the transcendent beauty of calligraphy.
